RAIL BOARD UPHOLD SHOP OVERTIME PAY RULES

Approval Given to Seven Regulations in Effect in War Time, Except That Only Regular Rate Shall Be Paid for Necessary
Sunday Work.

DECISION AFFECTS 137 RAILROADS

One Member of Board, in Dissenting Report, Objects to Any Change in National Agreement—
Outline of Rules Involved.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—The United States Railroad Labor Board today approved in effect the seven shop craft rules relating to overtime payment, as provided in the national agreement of the war-time Railroad Administration, but directed that the railroads need not pay overtime for absolutely necessary work performed on Sundays and holidays.

For the first time in the history of the board, a minority member made public dissenting report. A. O. Wharton, former president of the railroad division of the American Federation of Labor, insisting on recognition of the national agreement rules without change.

The majority report was signed by Judge R. M. Barton and five members, two of whom represent the public, two the roads and one the unions.

137 Railroads Affected.
One hundred and thirty-seven railroads in all parts of the country, including the United States lines of the Canadian Grand Trunk system and the railway employees' department of the A. F. of L. and the six federated shop crafts are affected by today's decision. The decision probably will be applied to all other lines as fast as their cases come before the board.

"The Railroad Labor Board has decided," the majority report says, "that the seven rules approved by the board, corresponding to said seven rules of the national agreement, are just and reasonable and that they shall apply to each of the parties to the dispute, except in such instances as any particular carrier may have agreed with its employees upon any one or more of said rules, in which case the rules agreed upon shall apply."

Ruling on Sunday Work.
The decision then set forth the following exception to the payment of time and one-half for Sunday and holiday work:

"Employees necessary to the operation of power houses, millwrights, engine, heat treating plants, train yards, running repair and inspection forces, who are regularly assigned to bulletin work on Sundays and holidays, will be compensated on the same basis as on week days. Sunday and holiday work will be required only when absolutely essential to the continuous operation of the railroad."

The decision does not affect any train service employees, only the shop crafts being parties to the dispute. The dissenting opinion of A. O. Wharton was particularly interested in this case, as he was the president of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor at the time President Wilson appointed him to the board.

Provisions of Rules.
The seven rules of the shop crafts' national agreement all apply to overtime payment. The general rule, amplified for particular instances by other rules, follows:

"Rule 6. All overtime work outside of bulletin hours, up to and including the sixteenth hour of service in any one 24-hour period . . . shall be paid for at the rate of time and one-half and thereafter at the rate of double time, up to the starting time of the employee's regular shift. This to include work performed on Sundays, New Year's day, Washington's Birthday, Decoration day, Fourth of July, Labor day, Thanksgiving day, Christmas and such State holidays as are now recognized as punitive overtime days."

Hour's Pay for 40 Minutes.
Rule 7 sets minimum overtime payments, providing that one hour's pay shall be made for 40 minutes or more.

Germany Said to Have 750,000,000 Gold Marks. to Pay Allies Aug. 31

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
GERMANY has bought all the foreign exchange necessary to pay the remaining 750,000,000 gold marks for reparations due before Aug. 31, according to semi-official statements. Speculators say the Government wants the public to believe it has money to prevent a future fall in the mark.

These speculators, eager to profit by the Government's necessity, are, nevertheless, buying heavily of foreign money. If the Government really has the reparations sum the mark will rise, otherwise speculators expect to see it fall to 100 to the dollar.

Secretary Weeks Says He Has Reprimanded Officer for Remarks About National Guardsmen.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The promotion of Maj. Robert G. Peck to be Lieutenant-Colonel was urged by Secretary Weeks in a letter today to the Senate Military Committee.

Secretary Weeks said he had reprimanded Maj. Peck for his criticism of the State troops.

OPEN SHOP THREAT BY MASTER BUILDERS OF EAST ST. LOUIS

Building Trades Unions Notified They Must Accept Wage Scale Formulated by Association.

The Master Association of East St. Louis, of which the majority of building contractors are members, have issued an ultimatum to the members of the various building trades unions, declaring that unless the unions agree to the wage scale decided upon by the association members, East St. Louis will be declared an "open shop" town.

The new hourly wage scale, as formulated by the association, follows: Plasterers, bricklayers and stonemasons, $1.25; carpenters, tinsmiths, electricians, plumbers, steamfitters and lathers, $1, and painters, 90 cents. Painters now receive $1 an hour; plasterers, $1.50, and the other crafts $1.25 an hour. The new scale would be effective at the expiration of the present wage agreement, which, with most of the crafts, will be Sept. 1.

MAYOR IN FAVOR OF ANY MEASURES TO IMPROVE MILK

Declares Any Ordinance
That Appears to Remedy Conditions Will Be Approved by Him at Once.

PROPER CARS NEEDED, DECLARES STARKLOFF

Commissioner Says Situation
Cannot Be Improved
While Shipments Are in Baggage Vans.

Mayor Kiel, discussing today the Department of Agriculture's report of its survey of the milk situation in St. Louis, in which it found the condition of the city's milk supply "extremely unsatisfactory," said he was in favor of any step that would purify the milk supply. He said the Health Department had been working on the matter and was satisfied that the Board of Aldermen would co-operate with the Health Department in any step considered necessary.

He said any ordinance dealing with the situation that had the proper safeguards would be signed by him. He pointed out that milk in St. Louis had not been as good as it might have been because of the lack of funds. He said, however, that he believed the Board of Estimate and Apportionment would provide the necessary funds, within reason, to put into effect whatever legislation the Aldermen might undertake.

Health Commissioner Starkloff today said that after studying the report on the milk supply, he considered that the showing was not unfavorable to St. Louis. The report, forwarded by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace to President A. C. of the Board of Aldermen, was printed in the Post-Dispatch yesterday.

While the report said that the milk supply was "in an extremely unsatisfactory condition," Dr. Starkloff says the Government examination did not show the presence of any disease-producing bacteria in the milk, or any form of adulteration. He said conditions here were not worse than in other large cities and were better than in most other cities.

"The condition of the milk supply is certainly not satisfactory to the Health Department," Dr. Starkloff said. "I am glad that the Government has added its recommendation to these measures."

Refrigerator Cars Needed.
"The conditions which are unsatisfactory will not be corrected until there are proper facilities for transporting milk in refrigerator cars, or other cars for that special purpose. Instead of baggage cars, which have a high temperature, summer and winter, and until provision is made for the inspection of the milk supply where it is produced."

"I hope the Board of Aldermen, when it convenes in October, will take up the subject of a milk ordinance, and will put it to final passage. The Health Department will continue to agitate for purer and better milk until we get the standard as high as it is possible to raise it."

"The public needs to be educated in the proper handling of milk after it is delivered by the distributor. Milk that is exposed to a temperature higher than 50 degrees will increase its bacterial content by thousands every 20 minutes."

"The Government fixes 100,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter (about 15 drops) as a reasonable bacterial content. This is more than the former estimates of this department allowed, as we based some of our measures on a bacterial count of 50,000 bacteria to the cubic centimeter. The presence of bacteria does not mean necessarily that the milk is unhealthy. Cheeses have a much higher bacterial count than milk."

Per Cent of Pasteurization.
"The Health Department, in a recent report, estimated that 90 per cent of the city's milk supply was pasteurized. The Government finds that the percentage is 92.5."

President A. C. of the Board of Aldermen said today that he was not prepared to say what recommendations he would make to the Board of Aldermen, when it convenes in October, regarding new milk legislation. A. C. said he had not had time to examine the Department of Agriculture's report fully.

Alderman A. H. Niederlecker, chairman of the Public Welfare Committee, said he intended to confer with President A. C. of the Board, and with the Health Commissioner, as to measures to be passed after the Board reconvenes in October. He said that committee desired to do everything possible to improve conditions as to the milk supply.

ABILITY TO SKIP IS MADE TEST FOR VETERAN SERGEANTS

Physical Examination of Today May Mean Reduction of Some
to Police Ranks.

A strenuous physical examination to which 20 police sergeants, who have reached the age of 60, are being subjected today by Chief Surgeon Moore and his assistants is believed to portend reduction to the ranks of those who do not make a good rating and appointment in their places of younger and more active men.

The examination is directed to vision, portliness, agility and general physique. The portliness test is bending over and touching the toes with the fingers. The agility test is hopping 45 times on one foot and repeat on the other.

It has been the policy of the Police Board to replace old men with young ones. It is President Miller's opinion that the sergeants are the pivots of the department. In addition to directly supervising the work of the patrolmen they are the material from which Lieutenants are drawn.

200 FAMILIES HOMELESS AFTER FLOOD DESTROYS HATCH, N. M.

Plea Made for Food and Bedding
for Women and Children Suffering From Exposure.

By the Associated Press.
EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 19.—Flood waters which wiped out virtually all buildings in the town of Hatch, New Mexico, yesterday, causing more than 200 families to be made homeless and destroying thousands of dollars worth of property, were still several feet deep in the town today, according to messages received by the El Paso Herald.

Fieldiness said he was standing in a foot of water in a telephone booth in one of the five buildings yet standing.

"We must have food and bedding from the outside, for our people were unable to save anything," he said. "Houses were almost all adobe and they crumbled when the water came down from the foothills. The night has receded only a few inches."

There was a continuous all-night procession of men, women and children moving from the valley into the hills, carrying load after load of provisions and household furniture.

WOMAN FROM ST. LOUIS HOUNDED HIM, SLAYER SAYS

Russellville (Ala.) Storekeeper Declares Sight of Martha Henderson in Home Town Crazed Him.

SAYS EACH HAD OTHER ARRESTED

Fred R. Hall Tells of Relations With Woman, and Declares She Was a Desperate Character.

By the Associated Press.
RUSSELLVILLE, Ala., Aug. 19.—Declaring that he was "out of his mind," through desperation, because of the intrigue in which he found himself entangled with Martha Henderson, 24 years old, of Dallas, Tex., Fred R. Hall, storekeeper, today told the jury in whose hands his fate soon will rest, that the young woman had "hounded" him for two years.

It was the beginning of the second day of Hall's trial when the defendant took the stand in his own behalf.

Hall told the story of his relations with the woman he killed on April 12 last. He admitted that they were companions on trips to Washington, New York and other cities. The defendant said he had given the girl large sums of money in compliance with her demands and admitted writing letters to her in which he told her he would divorce his wife and marry her. In explanation of such communications, he said such assurances were necessary "to appease her, as she was a desperate woman."

Made Trip From St. Louis.
Miss Henderson came to Russellville from St. Louis against his wishes, he said, and the sight of her in his home town "drove him crazy." He pleaded that he was not guilty of murder as charged by reason of insanity.

A bundle of letters written by Hall to the girl were offered in evidence. Some of these were read. In nearly all of them, Hall's devotion for the young woman was expressed and was given as to her movements.

As on the previous day, Hall sat in a family group, consisting of his wife, four children, his aged father and other kinsmen.

Says He Received Note.
In further justification of his act, Hall said he had received from the girl an hour before the killing a note telling him he would be given "just 20 minutes" to see her. He said he had come to his home and told her he could not meet her. She then telephoned him, he said, that she was "coming after him."

She shot her as she neared the front entrance of his store.

Hall said he was responsible for Miss Henderson's arrest in Washington on a charge of stealing his motor car in that city, and that he once swore out a warrant against her for carrying a pistol on occasions, and that she had frequently made the statement to him "that she was going to have him, family or what not, or one of them would be killed."

He testified that she was the prosecuting witness in a white slave case brought against him in Atlanta last fall.

Love Letters Written to Miss Henderson Found in Her Trunk Here.
Miss Henderson formerly lived at 5326 Pershing avenue. Detectives, after the killing of Miss Henderson, went to the apartment at the Pershing avenue address and took possession of her trunk, in which they found more than 50 love letters, unsigned, but written on letterheads of F. R. Hall & Co., dealers in merchandise at Russellville, Ala.

Miss Leonard Johnson, an employee of the Lincoln Fiscal Agency, with whom Miss Henderson shared the apartment, told the police that late last fall she advertised for a young woman to share her apartment, and Miss Henderson answered the advertisement and became her roommate.

Miss Henderson did not work and seemed to be supported by remittances, Miss Johnson said. Much of her time was devoted to putting in and answering long-distance telephone calls. Miss Johnson said that late February a man came to St. Louis and remained here several days, frequently visiting Miss Henderson, who introduced him as "Mr. Hall."

GIRL FOUND AT CINCINNATI SAYS SHE IS MRS. GILLILAND

Asserts She Is Woman Who Was Supposed to Have Been Victim of Murder—Body Was Buried Near Granite City.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 19.—A girl who, Cincinnati police announce, says she is Serena Gilliland, who was supposed to have been murdered and buried in a field near Granite City, left here today for Granite City, Ill., where Thomas Gilliland, husband of Serena Gilliland, who was arrested a week ago in Terre Haute, Ind., is held in connection with the murder.

Gilliland asked the Cincinnati police to verify his claim that he and his wife had been living here in Avondale, while the woman worked as a waitress in a Fifth street restaurant. Detectives found at a Free-donia avenue address a young woman known as Serena Morris, who said she was Mrs. Gilliland. She consented to go to Granite City. She said she knew nothing about the arrest of Gilliland or the identification of the body of the slain woman.

Chief of Police Clark of Granite City and the girl's grandmother, Mrs. Martha Hull of East St. Louis, arrived here today. Insurance policies of $400 had been paid to the grandmother after the burial of the woman found in the grave.

Chief of Police Clark said that the woman who was buried bore a marked resemblance to Serena Morris, who is 20 years of age, even of dental peculiarities, scars and clothing.

"I wish it were I," the woman is said by policemen to have told Mrs. Hull when they met, "then my troubles would be over."

Body Was Identified by Relative of Mrs. Gilliland.
The body of the woman found buried near Granite City, June 16, was identified by Mrs. Martha Hull of East St. Louis as that of her granddaughter, Serena Gilliland. She collected insurance on the young woman's life and buried the body. She left East St. Louis last night.

In identifying the body Mrs. Hull, who described scars found on the body and dental work which, the police learned, corresponded with dental work done by an East St. Louis dentist for Mrs. Gilliland in July, 1919. The body also was identified by Mrs. Lillian Enmer and Miss Theresa Boschenroether of East St. Louis, who had known Mrs. Gilliland since childhood, and by Sgt. James K. Ewing of the East St. Louis police force, who had known Mrs. Gilliland for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Krause of 4544 Forest Park boulevard, by whom Mrs. Gilliland had at one time been employed as domestic, said the clothing found on the body was similar to clothing Mrs. Gilliland had worn, but they were unable to identify the body.

VETERAN LOCOMOTIVES ON VIEW AT STATION

DeWitt Clinton and Famous
"999" Was Exhibited Here Today.

A throng was in the east end of Union Station throughout today, to view the DeWitt Clinton passenger train, a relic of 1831, which was displayed on track 32. The train was scheduled to leave the city at 4 p. m.

The tiny old locomotive and tender and the three passenger cars, modeled upon the stage coaches of the time, were shown on flat cars. The coaches of gaudy yellow color, have each room for nine persons inside and six on top, so that the capacity of the three-coach train is 45 passengers.

The conductor sat on the tender, facing the passengers. One of his chief duties, it is explained, was to keep passengers' clothing from being ignited by sparks from the wood-burning locomotive. When such an accident did occur, the conductor was supposed to splash the unlucky passenger with water.

Incident of Its Operation.
An aged woman who viewed the exhibit last evening said that her father and mother, residents of New York State, rode on the train for their wedding tour, and that her mother's wedding dress was spoiled by the smoke and dust of the journey. She said the family had preserved a letter, written by her mother after this experience, in which she prophesied that the use of the railroad would soon be abandoned, and in which she spoke of this method of travel, at a speed of 12 or 15 miles an hour, as "flying in the face of Providence."

With the ancient rolling stock is shown Engine 999 of the New York Central Railroad, which, in 1893, established a speed record of 112 miles an hour. A "booster" engine of the latest type, larger but not than the 999, is shown for comparison.

Exhibit Comes via Chicago.
The historic exhibit was displayed in Chicago last week, in the Pageant of Progress. It was brought here by way of Indianapolis, and came here over the Big Four line, arriving last evening. On the trip from Indianapolis, farmers in automobiles, buggies and wagons were in waiting at nearly every crossing, and at towns where no stop was scheduled there were crowds about the track which caused stops to be made.

At Terre Haute, Ind., William White, 75 years old, a veteran locomotive engineer, was taken to ride in the cab of 999, and was permitted to run it for a short distance under the supervision of the regular engineer, Frank Nelms.

CURZON DECLARES EMPIRE'S SAFETY WILL PERMIT NO MORE CONCESSIONS

Premier, in Commons, and Foreign Secretary, in House of Lords, Declare Government Has Conceded Everything It Is Possible to Concede, for Peace.

PROVISION TO CALL PARLIAMENT QUICKLY

Action by Body in Event of Settlement, or Breakdown of Negotiations Can Be Obtained During Recess.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 19.—The British Government in its Irish peace offer had conceded everything it was possible to concede, Premier Lloyd George declared to the House of Commons today in his expected statement on the Irish peace negotiations.

It embodies the largest measure of freedom ever offered Ireland, he said; and he hoped the Irish leaders would not reject it, "and take the responsibility of renewing a conflict which would be robbed of all glory and all gratitude by its overshadowing horrors."

Lloyd George disclaimed any menace in his words. He declared, however, that the Government in making its terms, had done everything it could to secure peace and the good will of the people of Ireland, and that it was faced with the possibility through some things that had been said, that its terms would be rejected. In that case, the country would face a graver situation regarding Ireland than ever before.

Provision to Call Parliament.
Therefore, he said, provision had been made for the summoning of Parliament on 48 hours' notice if negotiations broke down and the prospect of peace became hopeless. He hoped, however, that reason would prevail and the Government's desire for an ending of the long misunderstanding between England and Ireland would be realized.

The Prime Minister's words were paralleled in the House of Lords by Lord Curzon, the Foreign Secretary, as to the Government's offer having already gone to the limit. All that could be given without compromising the safety of the realm, the sovereignty of the Crown, and the dignity of the empire had been offered, he said.

"I want to make it clear," said Premier Lloyd George, "that the Government did not put forth haggling terms, but put forward everything they could possibly concede to the Irish people. In Ireland (itself, so far as I can see, the doubt is not so much as to the terms, but as to whether the Government really means them."

"Question of Elucidation."
"That is a question of working out the terms—of elucidation and elaboration, and not a changing of the terms. The outline cannot be altered nor the basis changed."

"In view of the fact that the House is about to separate and the fascists have been making statements have been made even of a few disquieting facts, we are bound as a Government to take thought of all possible contingencies, however unpleasant they may be."

"The first is the possibility of an agreement, in which case the details will have to be thrashed out, which will take time. There is always, apt to be an atmosphere of suspicion surrounding relations between two countries—a suggestion of bad faith. If there is a misunderstanding of the slightest particular."

"It would thus be the duty of the executive to place a bill embodying the details and principles before the Parliament for immediate action, because delay is disastrous, once an agreement is reached."

"What if it was not necessary to deal with the other contingency, but we are bound to take notice of it."

PROPRIETARY MEDICINE TAX IS ELIMINATED

House Ways and Means Committee Approves 60 Changes in Tax Revision Measure.

DECREASE IN LEVY ON CEREAL BEVERAGES

Majority Also Votes Exemption From Taxation of Corporations' Donations to Charity.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Elimination of taxes on proprietary medicines was agreed upon today by the House Ways and Means Committee, which approved more than 60 changes in the Republican tax bill.

Subsequently the majority members of the committee voted to reduce the tax on cereal beverages from the proposed 4 cents a gallon to 4 cents and to bring fire and marine insurance companies under the 12 1/2 per cent corporation income tax on the same basis as life insurance companies.

The majority also approved an amendment exempting from taxation corporation donations made to charity, provided they do not exceed 4 per cent of the corporation's net income. Under another change the proposed 5 per cent manufacturers' tax to be substituted for the so-called luxury and nuisance taxes would not apply on goods already contracted for.

Discussion of the amendments was under five-minute limitation, following the conclusion of general debate last night. With this limitation, the House expects to work under high pressure in order to complete the bill before 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when a final vote will be taken.

Some of the proposed amendments deal with changes in phraseology only, but others propose substantial changes, including one for elimination of the suggested annual license tax of $10 on vendors of soft drinks. Another would require individual taxpayers to pay 12 1/2 per cent on profits from the sale of capital assets, if such profits and the taxpayer's net income exceed $25,000, whereas in the bill as reported they would pay 15 per cent on above $40,000.

Exemption for Pensions. It also was decided tentatively to exempt from taxation the Government allowances received by veterans of the Civil and Spanish-American Wars or their beneficiaries, as well as those received by individuals under the war risk and vocational rehabilitation acts.

Other amendments known to be under consideration would exempt manufacturers of tooth paste and powder from the tax on toilet preparations, and would define as foreign trade corporation business organizations which derived 50 per cent of their income from sources without the United States. The figure in the bill is 80 per cent. This class of income would not be taxable.

There is a movement before the committee to propose creation of a special commission to devise some form of plan by which incomes derived from tax-exempt securities can be taxed.

Principal speakers for the Democrats yesterday were Representatives Oldfield of Arkansas, and Cockran of New York, and for the Republicans, Representatives Green of Iowa, and Longworth of Ohio, members of the Ways and Means Committee.

Cockran attacked not only the bill itself but the rule under which the Democrats claim they were cut off from offering any amendments to the bill.

Reading official statements by former President Wilson and former Democratic Secretary of the Treasury urging repeal of the excess profits tax, Representative Longworth told the Democrats that he was opposing this repeal they were "repudiating the Democratic platform."

"You are getting your orders of propaganda from Scotland Neck," Longworth said, referring to minority leader Kitchin's dispatch to the Democratic caucus urging solid Democratic opposition to the bill. "I think the majority of my party made a mistake in deferring to Jan. 1 next the repeal of the higher surtaxes and excess profits tax, but I acquiesce. These two taxes are the greatest shackles we have on business and industry."

Two Hundred Men and Women Demand Men Who Had Held Up Couple and Attacked Girl.

By the Associated Press. BARNSTABLE, MASS., Aug. 19.—A mob of nearly 200 men and women, carrying ropes early today stormed the local jail, threatening to lynch three Cape Verde Island negro prisoners charged with highway robbery and criminal assault on a young white woman at Buzzard's Bay. A mob had previously stormed the Warden's lockup and threatened violence to one of the negroes.

At 2:30 this morning 25 automobiles, whose occupants included women as well as men, drove up to the jail. They demanded the three negroes, John Dies, Benjamin Gomez and Joseph Andrews, from Sheriff Irving L. Rosenthal.

There were shouts of "Let's get them," but when the jail defenders, five men, fired into the air the crowd halted.

Chief Warden James Boland warned the mob back, shouting that at the first attempt to attack the jail they would "be shot down like rats."

The crowd remained outside the jail nearly an hour and a half, still threatening, while Sheriff Rosenthal, Chief Warden Boland and the three others stood guard with shotguns.

Dies and Gomez were held in $15,000 bail each yesterday and Andrews was to be arraigned today. All three have been identified by Miss Gertrude Butler and William Eldredge as the men who held them up and mistreated Miss Butler at Buzzard's Bay early in the week.

By the Associated Press. DUBLIN, Aug. 19.—The leaders of the Sinn Fein today centered their attention on London, awaiting the expected statement on the Irish negotiations by Premier Lloyd George in the House of Commons and the Government's reply in the House of Lords to the recent invitation by the Marquis of Salisbury for an official outing on this subject.

Meanwhile the rank and file of the Deputies were engaged in committee work on Irish internal affairs.

The House was thrown into an uproar and both members reiterated their charges, but the remarks were finally expunged from the record.

certain things which have been said. This contingency is that our terms are rejected.

Misfortune of Islands. "Were that misfortune to befall the relations between these two islands, whose history has been so full of such unfortunate incidents we would be faced with a graver situation in regard to Ireland than that with which we have ever been confronted."

"Whatever these terms may accomplish and may have done, there is one thing they have achieved: They have defined the issues more clearly than ever before and rejection would be an unmistakable challenge to the authority of the crown and the unity of the empire, and no party in the state could possibly pass that over without notice."

"I am using no language of menace. That would be indeed fool. Where there are so many existing difficulties, to use threatening language would be to aggravate old difficulties and create new ones."

"If there is rejection, and final rejection beyond hope of negotiation, steps will undoubtedly have to be taken which the executive ought not and won't wish to take without consulting Parliament and giving it full opportunity of expressing approval or disapproval of any steps we might propose to it."

"The Government Wants Peace." The speaker said the Prime Minister would feel authorized to take necessary emergency measures, but would not, therefore, delay the summoning of Parliament.

In concluding, Lloyd George said: "The Government is sincerely desirous that peace should be secured and that the long misunderstandings, sometimes sulky, sometimes savage, which make so many chapters of British history painful reading, cease and that the people who ought to live in peace and harmony, even in affection, together, should be brought to an end."

In spite of the disquieting facts, Lloyd reason will prevail even over logic and that the Irish leaders will not reject the largest measures of freedom ever offered their country and take the responsibility of rejecting a conflict which would be robbed of all glory and all gratitude by its overshadowing horror."

PHYSICIAN AND TWO OTHERS HELD IN KANSAS KILLING

Two Prisoners Removed From Great Bend Because of Feeling Over Murder of Judge's Son.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. GREAT BEND, KAN., Aug. 19.—Dr. W. A. Nixon, a physician of this city, and Roy Hayes, an employee of the Standard Oil Co. here, against whom a charge of first degree murder was filed in connection with the killing, July 6, of Arthur C. Banta, was secretly taken out of the city yesterday afternoon by County Attorney Weber and Sheriff Sam Hill. The action was declared to be a precaution against mob violence which the authorities feared might develop as a result of high feeling here over the murder of the attorney, a son of Judge D. A. Banta of this city.

Word from Boise, Idaho, last night said that A. A. Parkinson, 24, was arrested on a ranch near Twin Falls, Idaho, yesterday by R. T. Myer, a private detective. According to Myers, Parkinson was implicated in the killing of Banta.

Though the Barton County officials were reticent on their return here last night, it was learned from Hutchison this morning that Dr. Nixon was placed in the Rice County Jail at Lyons and Hayes in the Reno County Jail at Hutchinson.

Both Deny Charges.

Dr. Nixon, who has enjoyed a large practice while a resident here, burst into tears when the handcuffs were placed on him and declared there was no excuse for such action. Dr. Nixon has practiced his profession here for 12 years. He is married and has four children. The physician maintains a pretty home and is said to be comfortably situated.

Both men denied the charges placed against them.

Nixon and Hayes have been suspected since the discovery of Banta's body, which was found lying beside his automobile on a lonely road four miles west of here. This night following the finding of the body Nixon and Hayes were summoned to the County Attorney's office for investigation, and since that time they have been subject to constant questioning by the County Attorney and his aides.

A. L. Wallace, restaurant owner, who also was suspected of knowing something of the murder and is now in the county jail on a charge of perjury, was cleared of all connection with the case by the County Attorney yesterday.

The murder of Banta occurred at night and his body was found next morning by two farmers when they were taking their harvest crowd to the field. The body had four wounds in the left arm and two in the body.

SENATOR, FATHER OF RENT CONTROL BILL, HIT BY BULLET

Washington Police Investigating Incident of Two Months Ago When Ball Was Auto Riding.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Washington police started yesterday an investigation to find the person who fired a shot about two months ago which struck Senator Ball of Delaware, while he was driving through the city in an automobile. He was not injured.

About two years ago, when the Senator introduced his district rent control bill, he received many anonymous threatening letters. One, declaring his property would be destroyed, was turned over to the local police. Last June he introduced an amendment extending the life of the rent act and received additional letters. The last of these was a letter from the body of former Senator Ball, which was turned over to the police. The letter declared that it had been fired from a roof or window.

The army and all the Government employees yesterday took the oath of loyalty to King Alexander.

It has been decided by the Cabinet that the body of former Senator Ball should lie in state at the cathedral at Belgrade until Aug. 21, when it will be taken to Pola, where it will be placed in the Karagorjevic family tomb.

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and "brainy" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs.

PRACTICAL ADVICE ON HOW TO DEVELOP GREAT ENERGY AND ENDURANCE

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite, and by so doing they produce tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force. Your blood carries no oxygen, and without the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it. It is like putting coal into a stove without a fire, you cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease or disease germ, is iron. Iron increases the strength, energy and endurance of the body. Iron is organic iron, not metallic iron like the iron in spinach, lettuce and apples. It is the iron in the blood, and it is known as organic iron. It is the iron that may be had from almost any drug.

If you have been taking metallic iron without benefit, such as iron pills or iron water, you will not help you. Suffered from iron deficiency, increase the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks. It is such an extremely valuable product that even the Pope at Rome wrote especially of its merits in a communication to the Placards Normale. It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturer will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

HIGH RAIL RATES CUT FARM OUTPUT, WALLACE SAYS

Secretary Tells Federal Commission Roads Must Share Economic Burden With Agriculturists.

"FARMER BEARING MORE THAN PART"

Reduction in Freight on Hay Would Give Larger Volume of Traffic, More Revenue, He Says.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—Railroads must share with the farmers and others the burden of the present economic situation by reducing freight rates, Secretary Wallace said yesterday before the Interstate Commerce Commission, which is investigating rates on grain and hay.

High freight rates have stopped production, the Secretary said, adding that if the present situation continued, production from the farms would be reduced materially.

"We cannot afford to let our agriculture be destroyed," he declared. "In attempting to relieve the distress of the farmers, we are dealing with great economic forces. All our people ought to share the burden of the present depression."

"The Farmers' Burden." The farmer was now bearing more than his share of the economic load, he said, because the purchasing power of farm products was below the average of other commodities. He presented figures to show that in Iowa the purchasing power of oats was 40 per cent of what it was from 1909 to 1914.

Reductions in freight rates on the commodities under investigation, especially on hay, the Secretary said, would be reflected in a larger volume of traffic, and therefore in greater revenue for the railroads. The prosperity of the railroads, he added, depended in a large measure upon the prosperity of the farmers.

Many young farmers purchasing land at high prices during times of abnormal prices were foreclosed when the depression came, the witness pointed out, causing a situation which should be a matter of public concern, because of reduced production.

In reply to questions by attorneys for the railroads, the Secretary said that wheat from Argentina could be laid down at Atlantic ports and in foreign ports at less than the price American raised wheat must bring under present conditions.

C. S. Ross, secretary of the Idaho Farm Bureau Federation, testified that railroads were threatened with great loss of traffic as a result of farmers in that State turning to producing dairy cattle. Forty acres of land, he said, would produce 4,000 pounds of dairy products as freight for the railroads, against 8,000 pounds of wheat.

Leonard Wray, rate expert for the Idaho Road Commission, declared that emergency rates recently put into effect by railroads had resulted in a great increase in the movement of hay. This tended to prove, he said, that reduced rates would increase the volume of traffic for the carriers.

SUDDEN ILLNESS OF MOTHER DELAYS DAUGHTER'S WEDDING

Marriage of Miss Corinne Erlich to New York Man Postponed After Guests Have Assembled.

Sudden illness of Mrs. Rebecca Erlich, 5333 Pershing Avenue, mother of Miss Corinne Erlich, who was to have been married last night to Monroe Levey of New York, was given today by Philip Erlich, father of Miss Erlich, as the reason for the postponement of the wedding. He said the postponement was indefinite until Mrs. Erlich recovers.

Guests assembled in the rose room at the Buckingham Hotel for the reception waited more than an hour. Efforts to get into communication with the Erlich home failed. They finally dispersed without knowing what was the reason for the non-appearance of the bride party.

The couple had planned a honeymoon trip through Canada and were to have made their home in New York, where Levey is connected with an optical firm.

NIGHT POSTAL CLERKS WANT 6 HOURS' WORK, 8 HOURS' PAY

Workers Said to Stay With Jobs Only Short Time in Chicago Because Service Is Unattractive.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—Six hours' work with eight hours' pay for night workers in the postal service is favored by the Chicago Postoffice Clerks' Association, according to announcement following a meeting to select delegates to the annual convention at Charleston, W. Va.

According to Frank C. Sweeney, president of the association, more than 3,000 temporary clerks have been employed at the local post-office since Jan. 1, these being assigned to night duty. Most of them, he asserted, remained only a short time because the service was unattractive for the night force.

Me

Are You Human?

A little baby. A little child. Don't they appeal to you? Doesn't your heart yearn to pick them up, to cuddle them close to you, to shield them from all harm? sure it does else you're not human. Being human you love them. Their very helplessness makes you reach out in all your strength to aid them. In health there's no flower so beautiful. In illness there's no sight so black.

Save them then. Use every precaution. Take no chance. When sickness comes, as sickness will, remember it's just a baby, just a child and if the Physician isn't at hand don't try some remedy that you may have around the house for your own use.

Fletcher's Castoria was made especially for babies' ills and you can use it with perfect safety as any doctor will tell you. Keep it in the house.

Children Cry For

Fletcher's CASTORIA

Do the People Know?

Do you know why you are asked to call for Fletcher's Castoria when you want a child's remedy? why you must insist on Fletcher's? For years we have been explaining how the popularity of Fletcher's Castoria has brought out innumerable imitations, substitutes and counterfeits.

To protect the babies: to shield the homes and in defense of generations to come we appeal to the better judgment of parents to insist on having Fletcher's Castoria when in need of a child's medicine. And remember above all things that a child's medicine is made for children—a medicine prepared for grown-ups is not interchangeable. A baby's food for a baby. And a baby's medicine is just as essential for the baby.

The Castoria Recipe (it's on every wrapper) has been prepared by the same hands in the same manner for so many years that the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and perfection in the product are synonymous.

YOUTH IS KILLED WHEN MOTOR CYCLE STRIKES A TRUCK

Oliver Ruschenberg, Son of Terminal Agent, Drives Into Rear End of Vehicle Preceding.

TESTIMONY DIFFERS OVER THE TAIL LIGHT

Three Men Say End Lamp Was Not Lighted on Truck, Another Claims It Was Burning.

Oliver Ruschenberg, 21 years old, of 1220A North Sarah street, son of Henry Ruschenberg, special agent for the Terminal Railroad, was killed at 10:20 o'clock last night when a motor cycle he was riding collided with the rear end of a truck while both were eastbound on the Manchester road near the Denny road, St. Louis County. Ruschenberg was taken in an automobile to Barnes Hospital, where doctors said he apparently had been killed instantly. His skull, shoulder and several ribs were fractured.

Policemen of the Newstead avenue district were told by S. H. Coleman, 3140 Washington avenue; Alex Vazquez, 3130A Sherman avenue, and T. O. Houseman of 3908 Easton avenue, who took Ruschenberg to the hospital, that the accident was caused by the truck's failure to have a tail-light burning. They said the truck was owned by J. Fritz of Valley Park.

The boy's father told the police the youth left home at 9 p. m. for a ride. Early today James Burris of 1103 North Compton avenue, who said he witnessed the accident, called at the station and said the tail-light of the truck was burning at the time of the accident.

Two Hurt in Head-on Collision at King's Highway and Columbia.

Mrs. Mary Stolberg, 66 years old, of 5303 Ridge avenue, and Charles Eckert, 20 months' old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Eckert of the Ridge avenue address, were injured at 8:30 last night when an automobile driven by Eckert, accompanied by his wife, son and daughter, Stolberg, collided head-on with an automobile driven by Mrs. Nona Selbert, wife of Dr. Rudolph Selbert of 6148 Washington avenue, at King's highway and Columbia avenue.

Barnes Hospital, Mrs. Stolberg was found to have suffered a fractured arm and scalp wounds. The baby was cut on the head and arms. Mrs. Selbert was arrested and gave bond. She told the police she had to swerve to the wrong side of the street to avoid an automobile coming out of Columbia avenue, causing her machine to collide with the Eckert car. Jerome Rock, 15, of 1824 Shenandoah avenue, suffered internal injuries and scalp wounds at 5 p. m. when knocked from his bicycle which was struck by an automobile driven by an unidentified man at Shenandoah avenue and Jules street. The man took the boy to the home of his father, 2009 Shenandoah avenue, assisted him to the sidewalk and then drove away. The boy was taken to the city hospital.

Boy Hit by Motor Cycle.

Thomas Roe, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Roe of Piedmont, Mo., visiting here at 4427A Oakland avenue, suffered scalp wounds and cuts on the legs at noon yesterday when he was knocked down by a motorcycle ridden by Alvin Reilly, 21, of 6527 Plymouth avenue at Natural Bridge and Red Bud avenues. Witnesses told the police the boy ran from behind a street car in the path of the machine.

Charles Fries, 23, of 6134 Alabama avenue, was thrown from his motorcycle in front of 6020 South Broadway at 4 p. m. when the brace rod in front broke, causing the wheels to lock. He suffered sprains of the thumbs, wrists and arms and cuts on the face.

Saul Osherow, 24, of 1523A Arlington avenue, a printer, suffered cuts and bruises at 7:40 p. m. when struck by an automobile driven by Paul Mueller of 4659 Holly avenue at Easton and Sempie avenues. Ralph McCollum, 10, of 3216 North Eleventh street, suffered injuries to the right hip and cuts and bruises at 4 p. m. when knocked from a bicycle, struck by a truck driven by Christ Hangartner of 3619 North Eleventh street, at Eleventh and Branch streets.

The funeral will be held from an undertaking establishment at 5216 Delmar boulevard, to Memorial Park Cemetery.

ADVERTISEMENTS.
New Way to Curl Hair
Fine for Outdoor Girl

The silmerine method of curling the hair is the proper thing before going tanning, boating or golfing, or indulging in any outdoor sport or exercise. This will not only give the hair the most beautiful wavy and curly appearance imaginable, but wind or heat will not take the curl out. The curliness is quickly acquired and lasts much longer than where waving irons are used. Besides, the hair will be bright and lustrous, instead of dull and dead looking. When combed out it will be as nice and fluffy as if it had just been shampooed.

Just get a bottle of liquid silmerine at any drug or department store, follow the accompanying directions and you will be simply delighted with the result. This product is, of course, perfectly harmless,
and there is nothing sticky, greasy or unpleasant about it.

AUTO THEFT AS A FACTOR IN KENNEDY KILLING DISCARDED

Investigator Says Case Against Accused Is Strong,
but Any New Evidence Will Be Acted Upon.

By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 19.—Any evidence warranting another arrest
will be acted upon promptly, Malcolm McLaren, chief investigator of the District Attorney's office, said
today in commenting on Ralph R.
Obenchain's statement that the man who killed J. Belton Kennedy here
Aug. 5 would be in jail by Sunday.
Obenchain, attorney for his former wife, Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, indicted with Arthur C. Burch for murder in connection with the shooting, steadily has maintained that the innocence of the defendants would be established through the apprehension of another person.

McLaren said the only desire of officials was to see the slayer of Kennedy arrested and convicted, but he added that "any theory of the case must provide for Burch and Mrs. Obenchain; the facts show too strong a case against them to be disregarded."

Two New Witnesses Examined.
Coincident with this statement it was announced by Deputy District Attorney Keyes that the prosecution had examined two new witnesses late yesterday, and that the case against the two prisoners recently indicted was becoming "stronger every day."
McLaren said that while his office had been working on the theft of an automobile stolen on the night of the murder and later recovered at Santa Monica, he considered the automobile and the thief had been eliminated as a pertinent factor in the case.

It was believed at first that the man might have been one of the two "foreigners" whom Mrs. Obenchain told authorities had brushed by her in the Beverly Glen shortly after the shooting of her fiancé.
The way was cleared here yesterday for an early trial of Mrs. Obenchain and Burch. Superior Judge Sidney N. Reeves, before whom the two were arraigned last Monday, declared that the case was of such importance he would give it precedence over his entire criminal docket.

"After the two defendants enter their pleas on Monday I will announce that the Court is ready to hear the case at once," he said.
He added, however, that he did not expect the case actually to come to trial until some time in September, his assumption being, he said, that the defense would probably not have its case ready before then.

Obenchain Holds to Statement.
Obenchain would not comment on the matter of a speedy trial. Last night he held to his statement made yesterday that within five days the innocence of Mrs. Obenchain and Burch would be established through the apprehension of some other person.

"At present," he added, "we see no hope of having the indictments quashed. We know the prosecution is too dogmatic to do that—aside from the fact that it would make them look foolish. We do, however, hope to come into the possession of evidence very shortly which will absolutely clear both the prisoners and probably put the real perpetrators behind the bars. I had some theories regarding the case when I arrived here, and they are being verified thoroughly as I go along."

Obenchain refused to reveal the nature of the evidence which he is gathering.

Insurance Firm Says Obenchain Resigned and Can Have Job Back.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Aug. 18.—Officers of the Aetna Insurance Co. today declared that Ralph R. Obenchain, who went to Los Angeles last week to help defend his divorced wife, in the Kennedy murder trial, has been discharged as one of the company's attorneys. They said Obenchain resigned and could have his position
back any time he asked for it.

Burglar Alarm Sounds.
A bell over the door of the Barnett Jewelry Co., 808 Pine street, used as a burglar alarm, started ringing at 12:10 a. m. today, causing an alarm to be sent to police headquarters. After 40 minutes' ringing the bell was silenced by a member of the firm.

Hyde Turns Over Robber Suspects.
JEFFERSON CITY, Aug. 19.—A requisition from the Governor of Washington for the return to Seattle of Ed Patton and Louis Lazarus, wanted there for a $25,000 bank messenger robbery, July 14, last, was honored yesterday by Gov. Hyde. The two men were held by Kansas City police.

SENATE AMENDMENT DELAYS ANTI-BEER BILL

House Conferees Said to Have Wrecked Provision for Penalties for Searching Home.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The Senate amendment to the anti-beer bill—designed to safeguard through heavy penalties a man's home and property from illegal search for liquor—was reported today as the Senate's final enactment prior to the recess next week of Congress.

The fight over this provision of the bill, adopted unanimously by the Senate, broke unexpectedly in the Senate yesterday, and prohibition leaders declared it was more likely all beer legislation would go over until fall, with the possibility that the Treasury Department might issue regulations under which beer could be manufactured and prescribed for the sick.

"Because of the evident intention" of Senate conferees to destroy the effect of the Stanley amendment, Senator Ashurst, Democrat, of Arizona, "bolted" the conference, announcing that he would take no part therein or sign any report unless the amendment was retained precisely as originally written. Senator Ashurst told the Senate the effect of the House substitute would legalize home manufacture of beer and liquor.

At the end of an all-day wrangle in conference and in the Senate, according to leaders, the whole course of the proposed anti-beer legislation hinged upon hope of agreement by Senate and House managers, while Senator Sterling, Republican, of South Dakota, chairman of the conference, declined to indicate how the members stood till result of the day's deliberations is said to have been the virtual wrecking of the amendment from the shape in which it received a unanimous vote.

House managers are said to have agreed to leave it intact so far as it related specifically to the searching of a home on a warrant obtained under the general law, with a demand that severe penalties, put there as a means of protecting the home, be sharply cut.

During the Senate debate there were insistent demands that a man's property, including his barn, his baggage, automobile or garage, should be subjected to the same safeguards that surrounded his actual place of abode. But the conferees are reported to have about agreed to a modification that a warrant would not be required to search "other property," providing a prohibition officer had reason to believe the suspect was guilty and if the search was not prompted by malice.

REPORT OF INQUIRY INTO FOSTER ATTACK MADE TO CUBA

Offer Said to Have Been Made to Withdraw American Troops If Cuba So Desired.

By the Associated Press.
HAVANA, Cuba, Aug. 19.—President Zayas has been furnished with a report of the investigation by the American legation into the attack on Leroy Foster, American Reserve Major, at Camaguey last week, and the alleged illegal entry by American marines of the home of Humberto and Arcadio Sarril, Cubans, in search of the assassin. Neither the Cuban Government nor the American legation has made any official announcement regarding the affair, and thus far, neither of the brothers, who are alleged to have made the attack, has been detained. No attempt has been made to take into custody the American marines accused of entering their home.

BEER SHIPPED FROM CANADA THROUGH U. S. TO WEST INDIES

Movement of Thousands of Gallons Begun Following Ruling of Secretary Mellon.

By the Associated Press.
MONTREAL, Aug. 19.—The ruling of Secretary of Treasury Mellon that liquor may be shipped from one country to another through the United States, resulted yesterday in the movement southward of many thousands of gallons of beer. The shipments mainly are consigned to the West Indies, the Guianas, Central and South American countries.

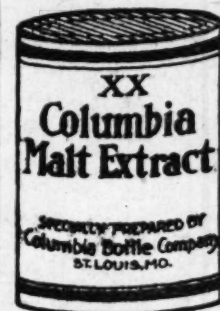

TWO MORE KROGER ROBBERIES

Burglars Get $15 in One Store and $118 at Manager's Home.

Two Kroger grocery store managers reported robberies to the police yesterday. William E. Withers of 2638 Arsenal street, manager of a store at 428 Wilmington avenue, reported that while the place was closed, between 1 and 2 p. m., while he was at lunch, a burglar broke a basement window, chopped open a door leading upstairs and stole $15 from the cash register, going out the front door.

Joseph Oberman of 2327 Wash street, manager of a store at 1108 North Grand avenue, told the police that a burglar in his home had taken $118 belonging to the company. He said he had taken the day's receipts home Wednesday night for safe keeping and had hidden the money in a closet.

Nights Under Blankets—

In this Great Summerland

—and a Thousand Things to do by day!

By AN EASTERNER

I WAS once in need of an absolute change—the rest that only entirely new environment can bring.

It was in summer. I told a friend about it and he suggested Southern California.

I was greatly surprised, for I had thought of Southern California only as a winter resort. He said I would be even more surprised to sleep there under blankets every summer night. It was only a few hours away from me as it is from you, and so I packed up and went, on the spur of the moment, just as you can do.

My Greatest Summer

That summer was a life saver for me—the greatest I ever spent. The delicious, cool nights refreshed me and every day offered a new diversion of absorbing interest. I forgot myself completely and was a new man from the start.

What I Found

I found that Southern California is the greatest summer playground in the world—and I have traveled far and wide.

There are 4000 miles of paved motor roads leading to innumerable strange places—one mountain drive 101 miles long, called the "rim of the world," 6000 feet in the air.

There are wonderful sea beaches with great hotels and modest cottages. A world famous ocean fishing ground lies just off the coast from a great city which is the center of this great playground.

There are mountain lakes, trout streams, some of the world's finest golf courses, Missions, canyons, mountain

Temperature

The average mean temperature in Southern California for the past 44 years (U. S. Weather Bureau records) is as follows:
June, 66—July, 70—August, 71—September, 69.
The same records show that a great city in the center of this section has on the average only one day in June, two days in July, three in August and three in September when the thermometer touches or exceeds 90 degrees.
The air is usually dry, so higher temperatures are comfortable here that would be uncomfortable in the East where humidity emphasizes heat. Southern California averages 309 days of sunshine. Summer is the rainless season so you can plan on perfect weather for your fun.

peaks to climb. In fact, a thousand things to see and do that you have never seen and done before.

Hundreds of thousands go there every summer—the enlightened travelers who know.

Why not you, if you are seeking a place that will be new?

There is entrancing newness there—diversion of the finest kind.

And "blanket nights" invariably give the energy that makes the daytime fun.

We do NOT BELIEVE!

WOMAN FULFILLS VOW TO GO
2 MILES TO CHURCH ON KNEES

Lisbon Streets See Strange Sight
When Wife of Thinner Gives Thanks for End of His Illness.

Lisbon, Aug. 1.—A curious sight was witnessed in the streets of Lisbon just after dawn recently. Maria Congeaco, wife of a workman, was seen dragging herself painfully on her knees from her house through the busy streets to the Church of Our Lady of Health, thus carrying out a vow made during the illness of her husband, in case of his recovery.

The distance from her house to the church was more than two miles and long before she had accomplished one-half of her pilgrimage, her knees were torn by the stones and her dress was stained with blood.

Maria's husband, a young thinner, fell seriously ill about six months ago and was given up by the doctor. The devoted wife tended him with untiring care and love, and when it was thought that he was dying, she prayed for a miracle that should save his life, making a vow that if he recovered she would go on her knees, as a sign of thanksgiving, to the shrine of The Lady of Health.

The husband recovered and the wife has fulfilled her vow.

NAPOLEON'S ORIGINAL TOMB
ON ST. HELENA UNMARKED

Former Cabinet Member Denies
State of Disrepair Since Removal of Body.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Napoleon's original tomb on St. Helena has fallen into a sad state of disrepair since the body was removed in state to the Invalides in Paris 31 years ago, according to a letter received by Sir Lees Knowles, a former Cabinet Minister, from a recent visitor to that remote island.

"I walked the five and one-half miles up to Longwood, Napoleon's old home," the writer says, and inspected his much-neglected tomb which is down in a deep corner of a deep valley—just a slab covered with dirty whitewash—no inscription whatever. The grass around was unkempt, and surrounded by a circle, about 20 paces in diameter, of tall trees, and there was nothing anywhere to tell a visitor when the body was removed, or to whom the old tomb had belonged."

ELABORATE SKETCH ON MILK SHOW PROGRAM

Nine Children to Present Spectacle Entitled, "America in the Making."

One of the most elaborate numbers included in the program which Children of America Loyalty League will present on Aug. 27 at the Orpheum Theater for the benefit of the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice Fund is a sketch entitled "America in the Making."

Speaking at Carnegie Hall last night, Maxim said that he had set forth the basic principles of relativity in 1889. He cited a magazine article written by him for a scientific publication in that year in support of his claim.

Among the children in the act will be Ella Olson, Gladys Allison, Mary Catherine Beadles, Geraldine Farrar, Alice Hannegan, Henrietta Bishop and Eileen Hoffman.

Another number which promises to be very pleasing is the "Dance de Divertissement," which pupils of Miss Irma Summa will render. Four of the five dances given were created and originated by Miss Summa in and the fifth was copied from a dance given by Albertina Rasch, who is a well-known dancer on the Orpheum circuit.

Other offerings of the evening will range from vocal and instrumental numbers by pupils from leading St. Louis studios to vaudeville sketches from our best-known schools of expression. There will be 16 acts and each will be given in regulation Orpheum fashion.

Proceeds to Milk Fund.

The entire proceeds of the benefit will be used to provide pure milk and free ice for tenement children of the city. There will be practically no overhead expense as the Orpheum Theater is being donated for the purpose and attaches of the theater are giving their services free of charge.

Tickets are priced at prevailing Orpheum rates and may be obtained at the Orpheum Theater box office, or will be reserved through Mrs. Nat Brown, president of the Children of America Loyalty League, upon telephoning Olive 1573.

MOTOR GASOLINE IN ST. LOUIS DROPS 8.3 CENTS IN A YEAR

Decline in Tank Wagon Price Per Gallon Shown in Bureau of Mines Report.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The tank wagon price of motor gasoline in St. Louis dropped from 35.7 cents per gallon in July, 1920, to 17.4 in July, 1921, according to a statement made today by the Bureau of Mines, detailing the results of its fourth semi-annual motor gasoline survey. The average price in nine representative cities in July last year was 33.2 cents, as compared with 21.2 cents in July, 1921. In spite of this 25 per cent decrease, the report says, gasoline today is much better than it was last summer, being, in fact, almost identical in quality with last winter's gasoline.

Gasoline sold in the winter, it is explained, is more volatile than that sold in the summer. This meets the motorists' desire for a fuel that will afford ease in starting. The production of gasoline for the first five months of 1921 was 2,142,159,154 gallons as compared with 1,743,122,274 for the corresponding period last year. Imports fell off slightly, leaving a net increase of 366,588,369 gallons.

Both exports and domestic consumption of gasoline showed an increase, the total output for the five months being 200,000,000 gallons more than for the corresponding period of 1920.

St. Louis, it is noted, apparently receives gasoline of a different character from that marketed in other cities.

SENATE COMMITTEE COMPLETES HEARINGS ON CHEMICAL LIST

Amends House Provision for Import Duty on Re-Imported War Supplies.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The Senate Finance Committee completed hearings yesterday on the chemical schedule of the permanent tariff bill, amending the House provision for an import duty on re-imported war supplies sold by this Government to France and decided to press for passage of the House resolution extending the life of the dye embargo in the emergency tariff act without urging its own amendment to continue the entire emergency law to Jan. 1.

The amendment affecting war supplies would exempt from the 50 per cent tariff voted by the House all such stocks purchased prior to Aug. 15. One group of witnesses, seeking the amendment, said their purchases totaled $4,000,000, but gave no estimate of what shipments awaited cargo space.

The decision of the committee not to press its own amendment to the dye embargo resolution was reached, members explained, to avoid delay so that the resolutions may be passed before the proposed recess.

Representatives of the American Farm Bureau Federation appeared before the committee and urged elimination of the House tariff on ammonium sulphate of $12 a ton. Witnesses said it was the first time in any recent tariff that such an import duty had been voted and contended that there would be danger of impairing the fertility of the country's soil if farmers were compelled to pay higher prices for fertilizers.

Relativity Old Stuff, Maxim Says. By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Prof. Albert Einstein, widely heralded as the father of the theory of relativity, was but a small boy when the fundamentals of the theory were first advanced according to Hudson Maxim, inventor, author and publicist. Speaking at Carnegie Hall last night, Maxim said that he had set forth the basic principles of relativity in 1889. He cited a magazine article written by him for a scientific publication in that year in support of his claim.

CITY MILK 'EXTREMELY UNSATISFACTORY,' U. S. SURVEY DISCLOSES

A report on the city milk supply, conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture, from March 5 to May 10 last, has been received by President Alton of the Board of Aldermen from Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and was made public today.

The draft of an ordinance, recommended for the purpose of improving the quality of the milk supply, was included in the report. The ordinance is designed to correct the conditions shown in a general summary made by the Secretary of Agriculture, which reaches the following conclusions:

1. The milk supply of St. Louis is in an extremely unsatisfactory condition.

2. The entire milk supply should be immediately improved by the proper pasteurization of all except certified milk.

3. The general quality of the raw milk to be pasteurized should be improved as far as possible by the use of the best available methods.

4. Present legislation and present inspection forces and equipment are inadequate to properly safeguard the milk supply.

The St. Louis survey, conducted by the dairy division of the Department of Agriculture, followed an investigation conducted last winter by the committee on Public Welfare of the Board of Aldermen. The committee, in its report Feb. 15, criticized the dairies and milk plants of the city, with a few exceptions, as "a tendency to indifference, slovenliness and disregard for imperative sanitary requirements."

Wallace writes on Point "I feel sure that the present conditions are not satisfactory."

ST. LOUIS POLICEMAN SUED BY WOMAN

Andrew Koehn Defendant in $100,000 Damage Action by Divorced Wife of His Cousin.

Patrolman Andrew Koehn of the Dayton Street District was named codefendant with his cousin, Earl A.
Wilson, a Chicago bond broker, in a damage suit for $100,000 filed in Chicago yesterday by Wilson's divorced wife, Mrs. Dorothy C. Wilson, formerly of Atlanta, Ga. The petition alleges conspiracy on the part of the two men to defraud Mrs.
Wilson of $73,000.

Mrs. Wilson has come to St. Louis to ask for a grand jury investigation of the circumstances under which securities belonging to her were taken from a safety deposit vault here and turned over to her former husband in Chicago. She asserts that Koehn took the securities from the vault and gave them to Wilson. She married Wilson Feb.
4, 1920, she says, and he obtained a divorce by default in St. Louis last month. She could not be seen today at a hotel where she is registered.

Woman Formerly Resided Here.
Mrs. Wilson resided here for two years at Hotel Jefferson and Statler prior to and after her marriage to Wilson. She met Wilson at the Jefferson in the early part of 1919,
and they were married in Chicago in February, 1920. They resided there.
Mrs. Wilson's suit alleges that after she became engaged to Wilson
she gave him $73,000 in bonds for safekeeping and that after the marriage he did not return the securities.

Koehn told newspaper reporters
that he had taken $63,000 in bonds and $10,000 worth of jewelry from a St. Louis bank at the request of Mrs. Wilson and, at her direction, took them to her husband in Chicago.

Statement of Policeman.
Koehn said that Wilson specu-lated in stocks of the Stutz Motor Corporation and made $25,000 in the first month, but later lost that and $50,000 additional, when the stock took a sudden drop. He said that Mrs. Wilson knew about the stock speculation and urged Wilson to continue, expressing the belief that he would eventually recoup the losses.

While in St. Louis Mrs. Wilson twice reported having been robbed
of large quantities of diamonds.
On one occasion she informed the police that while driving two men jumped on the running board of her automobile and robbed her of diamonds valued at $1900. The other robbery, she said, occurred in Hotel Jefferson. She said a man entered her room and bound and gagged her and robbed her of $2500
worth of jewels.

On another occasion Mrs. Wilson told physicians at Hotel Statler that she had swallowed poison and exhibited a bottle labeled "poison."
Later she admitted having poured
some of the drug out of a window.
She said that she wanted to win the sympathy of her husband.

Wrote Letters to Judge.
A divorce was granted to Wilson
by Circuit Judge Hogan. When the case was pending, Judge Hogan received a letter from Mrs. Wilson stating that Wilson had defrauded her of her fortune. A special commissioner was appointed to investigate the charge. In the course of the investigation Judge Hogan received a second letter from Mrs.
Wilson repudiating the first letter and exonerating both Wilson and Koehn from any wrongdoing. The letter urged that Wilson be granted a divorce.

Mrs. Wilson, who is 34 years old, is said to have made her money in Texas oil deals. Her brother, James McMichael, is in the St. Louis jail awaiting transportation to serve a 12 years sentence for robbery. Wilson is 40 years old, and when in St.
Louis makes his headquarters at Koehn's home, 3825 Labadie avenue.

WERREMEYER REFUSES TO SEND MAN TO JAIL IN LIQUOR CASE

Justice Ignores Plea of Prosecuting
Attorney in Case of Defendant
Who Rejects Immunity.

Justice of the Peace Werremeyer of Clayton refused yesterday to send to jail James Gleish, who was arrested the day before on a farm near Shrewsbury where 29,000 gallons of mash were found. Werre-meyer ignored the recommendation of Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Rush for a jail sentence and the protest of Prosecuting Attorney Mueller against the $200 fine which was imposed.

The Prosecuting Attorney testified that Gleish did not avail himself of an opportunity to obtain immunity by divulging who employed him and that he said somebody would pay his fine. It was paid by Sam Am-bro, a chauffeur who spends much of his time at the Clayton courthouse, and Sam Gorozzi, a grocery clerk. They said it was contributed by other Italians. "We Italians stick together," said Ambro. The prosecutor said he would lay the information in the case before the Federal authorities. Werremeyer is one of the complainants against Sheriff Willmann for alleged nonenforcement of the prohibition law.

Woman Ends Life With Poison.
Mrs. Mary Brue, 37 years old,
died at the home of her sister, Mrs.
Anna Wilson, 3515 Hickory street,
at 2 p. m. yesterday an hour after she had taken poison. Policemen reported she was separated from her husband. Neighbors attracted by groans, found Mrs. Brue in bed. A note written by her read: "Dear
One, I seem to be the stumbling block in the eyes of you all to the way of success. Take good care of my boy, Robert. Keep my piano good."

WIRTH'S BUNGLING OF TURKISH PROBLEM CAUSED THE WAR

Chancellor Sees Head of German Democratic Party in Effort to Prevent Debate.

By the Associated Press.
BERLIN, Aug. 19.—Chancellor Wirth is endeavoring to secure the support of all political factions represented in the Reichstag for his plans looking to the negotiation of a treaty of peace with the United States. Conferences of an important nature have been held during the past few days, the one of Tuesday being especially important. At this session Count von Bernstorff, German Ambassador at Washington, was present as a spokesman for the Democratic party.

It is declared that the Chancellor's efforts are being directed against the opening of general debate on the treaty in the Reichstag, and it is asserted that unless he succeeds in obtaining a "gentleman's agreement" with the Reichstag factions before ratification of the treaty is considered in plenary session, the debate
may resolve itself into a season of bitter wrangling.

Fears are expressed that the German-American war diplomacy and the submarine policy which brought about American intervention in the war will again be dragged forth by those who seek to exploit them for partisan purposes. It is for the purpose of obviating such a situation that Chancellor Wirth is laboring to obtain an agreement by all parties which will result in minimizing, if not wholly eliminating, debate in the plenary session.

New names are being mentioned
as possible appointees to the ambassadorship to the United States.
Among those most recently brought forward is that of Prof. Gerhart von Schulze-Gaevernitz, who occupies the chair of political economy at Freiburg University. It is stated that Prof. Schulze-Gaevernitz, who recently declined to have his name considered for the post at Washington, recommended Prof. von Schulze-Gaever-nitz. It is urged in support of the Freiburg economist that for many years he has been close to work with economic and political conditions in Europe, and that his acquaintance in England, France, Italy, Russia and Japan would be of great assistance to him in carrying out the work of Ambassador.

WIRTH CONFERS WITH BERNSTORFF ON U. S. TREATY

TRADE PROTOCOL WITH GERMANY TO PRECEDE TREATY

Special Temporary Agreement to Permit Commercial Relations at Once and Peace Proclamation.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A special agreement in the nature of a protocol will precede the formal negotiation of a treaty of peace with Germany. This agreement may not be submitted to the Senate.

It will be a sort of modus vivendi,
or temporary arrangement, which will permit with respect to trade relations with Germany to be resumed immediately and enable the President to issue his long delayed proclamation of peace.

The agreement will be brief in character and along general lines.
It will preserve America's rights under the armistice and subsequent treaties closing the European war and will for the purpose of formal treaty eventually to be negotiated.

The administration has made a special request of the German Government that the exchanges with Germany be resumed immediately.
The agreement shall be kept absolutely secret. The reason for the injunction of secrecy is not divulged here.

Members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee have learned informally of the progress of the exchanges between the German Government and our State Department and they predict that the formula adopted by President Harding and Secretary Hughes will be received with satisfaction because for the next three to six months at least America will be able to send Consuls into Germany and establish commercial relations, while the tedious task of meticulously safeguarding America's rights under the many economic clauses of the Versailles treaty will be carried on. Exactly the new treaty with Germany will, of course, have to be submitted to the Senate.

Would Assist Harding.
Politically speaking, the postponement of formal peace negotiations will mean another advantage to Harding to the extent that as time goes on the bitterness over the old treaty fight may gradually vanish,
and if it is found essential to paraphrase whole sections of the Versailles treaty opposition may not be as strong as it would be now from those Senators who have announced that not a particle of the Versailles treaty will they ever approve.

The Department of State maintains its cloak of secrecy on the theory that the negotiations of a modus vivendi is not necessarily a public affair.

Word received here from Berlin indicates that the Germans approve of the American plan and that the German Reichstag is being consulted so that all political parties there will in a sense be committed to the pledges made in the special agreement with the United States. It will be recalled that China and Germany have a special agreement, too, inasmuch as China refused to ratify the Versailles treaty.

Germany, however, in negotiating a special agreement with China, absolutely declined to reaffirm in general terms the Versailles treaty since it meant another acknowledgment of responsibility for the war and it was stated officially by the German Government, such an act might prejudice Germany's chances to get the Versailles peace revised.

There is a hint that similar hitches have occurred in the negotiations with the United States, which have already taken more than five weeks.

Democrats in the Dark.
Although the German Government has seen fit to take all the political parties into its confidence, the Democrats in the United States Senate propose to be absolutely unacquainted
with the character of the negotiations with Germany. It is said that some members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee are opposed to the to-dink of any formal session at which information from the executive branch of the Government would be vouchsafed. They contend that it would be unwise to give information to their political opponents. On the other hand, those Senators who are on intimate personal terms with the folks at the executive end of the Government are finding no difficulty in learning just what is going on.

LEGION MEN VISIT AMERICA'S "BAPTISMAL FONT" IN ALSACE

Tablet Placed on House Where Monk Wrote Letter Suggesting Name for This Continent.

By the Associated Press.
STRASBURG, Alsace-Lorraine,
Aug. 19.—Civil and military authorities, delegations of veterans' associations and a company of infantry with colors and a band paid honors
to the American Legion delegation
when it arrived here this evening.
Great crowds of Alsatians gathered and cheered them.

En route to Strasburg the legionnaires stopped off at St. Die, proceeding to a point familiar to thousands of Americans in the rear of the old Lunelville sector, where they placed a commemorative tablet on a house which is the "baptismal font"
of America. It was in this house, according to tradition, that an Alsatian monk, Walsee Muller, wrote a letter suggesting that the continent be named after Amerigo Vesputci. Capt. Rene Fonck, the French ace, now a Deputy, was with the authorities who welcomed the Americans at St. Die.

ion to participate in its convention
in Kansas City in October next.

di, accompanied by General de Luca Kennedy. The latter was born in New York, his mother being a native of New Orleans and his father, then Consul General for Italy, in New York.

Two subordinate officers, one of whom will be Lieutenant Ruspoli, whose grandmother was an American, also will accompany General Diaz,
who will be joined in the United States by Colonel Vittorio di Bernese, Italian Military Attache in Washington, and Captain Carvo Huntington, Assistant Military Attache.

sage from the Italian army not only

AMERICAN RELIEF IN RUSSIA TO BEGIN AT ONCE

Satisfactory Agreement Reached With Soviet Authorities, Secretary Hoover Announces.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A satisfactory agreement has been reached with the Soviet authorities at Riga
under which the American Relief Administration will begin immediately to fight famine among the children of Russia, Secretary Hoover announces. The agreement, he adds, accepts the conditions laid down by the American organization for safeguarding the lives of relief workers and insuring American control of food supplies.

The Secretary explains it may be a day or two before a formal agreement is signed, as important details
such as means of transportation and location of serious famine areas remain to be worked out.

The work of food relief in Russia will begin at once, Hoover says, adding that the New York office of the administration is already preparing vessels to rush supplies to Danzig for transshipment into Russia.
The quantity of food, however, which will be needed, it is understood, cannot be determined until a survey of Russian famine conditions is made.

A letter from President Harding indorsing the effort to mitigate famine in Russia and asking unity of the relief work in one American organization was made public by Hoover.

"My particular purpose in addressing this letter to you," the President says, "is to emphasize my wish that the distribution in Russia
of all charity arising in the United States should be carried out through one American organization. It is only through single American representation and administration that we can assure to both American and Russian people the best service in the use of their funds.

"I am asking the department of State to co-operate in directing that passports be given for travel in Russia only to persons who may be in the service of the American Relief Association.

"It is also of importance that the American people should be protected,
so far as we can do so, from those persons who may try to thrive on great disasters by creating unnecessary organizations to collect charity."

Cocoa, Milk and Sugar.
It is expected the supplies will be the same as were used in relief work among the children of Poland and Austria, comprising a lighter and more easily digestible diet than is necessary for adults and probably including condensed milk, sugar,
pork, flour, cocoa, beans and rice.
It is believed that the administration can depend upon the country for local vegetables.

The President's letter was transmitted by Hoover to the children's relief organizations, comprising the European Relief Council, and a meeting of that body was called for early next week to consider joint arrangements to be undertaken for Russian administration.

The council is composed of the American Relief Administration,
American Friends Service Committee, American Red Cross, Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Christian Association
and the Catholic Welfare Committee.

"It is not the intention of the American Relief Administration," Hoover said, "to make any public appeal for funds, as it feels that the economic situation in America does not warrant such a demand until the whole employment and business situation is greatly improved. Any persons who desire to contribute are recommended to do so through any of the co-operating organizations."

ANGLO-JAPANESE ALLIANCE, INCLUDING U. S. WOULD INSURE PEACE, LLOYD GEORGE SAYS

British Premier Outlines in Commons the Dis-

Loyalty of Japan in War.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Aug. 19.—"If the alliance with Japan could be merged into a greater understanding with Japan and the United States on all the problems of the Pacific, that would be a great event, and it would be a guarantee for the peace of the world."

Thus spoke David Lloyd George,
the British Prime Minister, before the House of Commons yesterday, in outlining the work of the recent conference of the imperial Premiers.
The Premier was dealing specifically with the Anglo-Japanese alliance at the time, and explaining how the conference had unanimously recognized that Japan loyalty had carried out her obligations to Great Britain during the war, in letter and in spirit.

Lloyd George asked if it was to be suggested that Great Britain now should turn her back upon Japan
with a mere thank you and goodbye, after Japan had proved one of the turning factors in the war, is that it had given protection to the transit of dominion and Indian troops across seas. Even countries disliking the Anglo-Japanese alliance would despise the British if, after such services, Great Britain turned her back upon Japan, he declared.

Obligations to Japan.

The Premier said he saw no reason why it should be impossible to remember obligations to Japan and at the same time preserve a spirit of fraternity with the United States.
It was a cardinal principle of British policy, the Premier continued,
that Great Britain should act in as complete accord with the United States as possible. He did not know of any country in the world with whom it was more important to act in concert. He declared that the surest way to make a success of the disarmament conference was first to reach an understanding on Pacific questions, and he hoped his view in this respect would be taken at the Washington gathering.

During his address Mr. Lloyd George revealed the fact that the conference of the Premiers did not discuss the Irish question. He said there was no burning desire to touch
upon that difficult matter.

The Premier defended the action of Gen. Smuts, the South African Premier, with regard to Ireland. He said Gen. Smuts had acted perfectly straightforwardly and honorably and that everything he had done was with the full assent of the King and the cabinet.

The Anglo-Japanese Alliance.

"When you come to the question of a renewal of the Anglo-Japanese alliance," said Mr. Lloyd George,
"you must take into account how it has operated. There was a real test in the late war. No man who watched what happened could come to any other conclusion than that it (the alliance) was loyally and faithfully interpreted and carried out by our Japanese ally. The Pacific was being raided by fast German cruisers; our ships were being sunk and we had to depend on the help of Australia and New Zealand."

The Premier proceeded to tell how Great Britain's immense fleet was trained to the very last ship, new and old, in the gigantic operations for protecting Great Britain's own shores in the North Sea, the North Atlantic and Mediterranean.

"In the immense Pacific Ocean are the Southern Atlantic," Lloyd George continued, "how were we to guarantee a half million colonial and a million Indian troops crossing thousands of miles of sea against the raiders. We could not have done it but for the fact that our Japanese ally came to our aid."

"The Australian and New Zealand premiers admitted it. They said 'we would not have sent our troops without that guarantee.' And at the beginning of the war we certainly could not have given the guarantee
but for the fact that the Japanese fleet came there to assist us in chasing the raiders."

Turning Factor in War.

"It was invaluable to us; it was one of the turning factors in the war. They loyally and faithfully to the letter carried out their obligations, and carried them out in the spirit."

"It is to be suggested that we now
should turn around and say to them,
'Thank you. You stood by us in trouble, but we don't need you any-longer, so good-bye.' Would anybody believe like that in business? The British Empire must behave like gentlemen."

"When you are dealing with a country that stood well by you in trouble and it is suggested that you should bring the alliance to an end
when the trouble is over, I say that would not be becoming to the British Empire."

"I do not believe there is any country in the world, whether it likes the Japanese alliance or not, that would think anything better of the British if we had broken off the alliance. They might appear glad for the moment, but in their hearts they would despise us for doing it."

That does not mean that we are to continue an alliance of this kind
on any point against any one else,
and certainly not against the United States. It is a cardinal principle of British policy, and it must be, that we should act in as complete accord with the United States as any two countries can.

"Fraternity With U. S."

"I do not know of any country in the world with whom it is more important that we should act in concert than with America. But I do not see why it is impossible to remember our obligations to Japan and at the same time preserve a spirit of fraternity with the United States."

"That is one of the questions I

Champion Tilden Tells How to Develop Overhead Shot

Shots Which Cost a Terrific Physical Strain Should Be Avoided, He Says, Citing Case of Maurice McLoughlin.

By William T. Tilden.
World's Tennis Champion.
(Copyright, 1921.)

WHEN one says "overhead," one automatically says "McLoughlin." Yet this article says at once do not attempt to acquire McLoughlin's overhead unless you wish to sacrifice your whole game to one shot. Not that McLoughlin was a one-shot tennis player by any means, but the man who tries to acquire his smash will unquestionably kill the rest of his game. McLoughlin's overhead was a one-shot tennis player by any means, but the man who tries to acquire his smash will unquestionably kill the rest of his game. McLoughlin's overhead was a one-shot tennis player by any means, but the man who tries to acquire his smash will unquestionably kill the rest of his game.

Costs Energy.

The fact remains, however, that any shot which costs a terrific physical strain is not a shot to develop as a regular asset to one's game, since it costs you far more in the end than you gain from it.

The overhead should be developed from the standpoint of great result from least effort. The shot should be fast, flat and either straight or angled equally easily to either side.

To do this careful attention must be paid to footwork and the development of correct racket technique.

The overhead should be made with a flat racket face and direction decided by the position of the feet and swing of the arm, not by angling of the racket. Thus learn to hit your overhead by meeting the ball full and driving it straight ahead of you.

The weight should rest on the right foot, which is back, and shift onto the left as the shot is made. The left foot may be raised to increase the swing into the ball, but be sure to bring it down with the weight on it as the ball is hit.

Above all things do not jump into the air to make your overhead unless absolutely necessary, since it takes your whole body out of position and weakens the swing.

Method of Hitting.

Hit all overheads as far as possible with the forehand swing. This is the only shot one should turn around to take on the forehand, since you make or lose the point on your overhead shot. Always remember the point if the ball is hit overhead inside the service line. Do not try to kill shots overhead behind the service line; play them back deep and wait for the short lob to kill.

Rely about 60 per cent on speed and 40 per cent placement for your overhead shots, or, in other words, count more on beating the man.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—"Tex" Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpenter boxing bout, departed for New York last night after having been arrested by Federal officials yesterday and held in $10,000 bonds on a charge of violating the law prohibiting interstate transportation of fight films. The maximum penalty is a $1000 fine and a one-year imprisonment.

Rickard exhibited the films of the Dempsey-Carpenter match Wednesday night before an audience of wounded soldiers. A complaint was made by a woman's club. Before departing Rickard said that he had left instructions that the films be shown to the soldiers and marines in the Marine Hospital and at Camp Grant. "It is the poor man who is hit by the ban on these pictures," said Rickard. "The rich man can pay the price of seats at the fight itself, but the poor man is not even permitted to see the films."

Rickard declared that he would fight the case to a finish and expressed the belief that the law he was said to have violated would not hold.

UNCOMMON SENSE—By—JOHN BLAKE

Short-Sighted Educators.
The fact that the moving picture screen is not more generally used in the schools reflects little credit on boards of education and school superintendents.

There are few subjects which can not be made far more interesting and profitable to the pupil by the aid of the screen.

Take for example geography. The average text book on that subject contains bare, printed and usually out of date pictures of the cities and names of the world.

Were these scenes vitalized—were pictures of India made to show "elephants a plim' teak" and pictures of South America turned into actual scenes of coffee and cattle-growing, the pupil would never forget them.

The picture reviews given at the movie shows are today far more valuable instruction in geography than any instruction that is given in the schools, for the reason that they imprint upon the mind their pictures.

Biology is another subject that will never be well understood by the average child until it is taught by the screen.

The processes of life—the opening of flowers, the stages of the development of the work through the egg and cocoon to the butterfly—can be studied in the little mind by making the eyes see it as it happens.

All mechanics can be taught by the screen, in fact almost every branch of learning save mathematics, and there are some phases of early mathematics in which it would be a great help.

It would be well worth while for the schools all over the land to unite for the staging and photographing of historic scenes such as the landing of Columbus in America, and the signing of the Magna Charta in Runnymede.

Words are slow and must be digested. Pictures make an instant impression, and are forever remembered.

When it is possible to take children not only all over the world but back through history to its foundations by means of the moving picture camera, the schools seem singularly behind the times in failing to do it.

HOW TO USE PIE CRUST
By Emilie Hoffman.

WHEN making pie crust it is a good idea to make enough for several days' use. If kept in the larder it will keep fresh for several days. Or you can line a pie plate and a set of muffin rings or tarts with the crust and bake for use as a single-crust pie, jelly tarts or patties for other dinners.

Peach Pie.
Select ripe fruit, and after pouring boiling water over them peel and cut into quarters or eighths and fill crust. Crush two or three pits and put the meats into the pie to give flavor. Mix a tablespoon of flour with two-thirds cup of vinegar and sprinkle over fruit. But in a few bits of butter and one tablespoonful of water. Be sure to wet edge of lower crust before putting on the upper crust to keep the juice from running out. Bake nearly an hour.

Plum Pies.
Peel the plums, cut in halves and remove pits. Cover with sugar and add sufficient water to form juice. Line large-sized muffin rings with crust and roll out upper crust until quite thin. Wet edges of plums and bake with the plums and cover with this crust. Bake half an hour in moderate oven. Serve hot or cold.

Oyster Patties.
Have patty shells baked. For patties the dough should be rolled out three times, adding bits of butter each time.

Put two tablespoonfuls butter in a cup and mix this with a small cup of cracker dust. Add this to the cream and oyster liquor in equal proportions, about half a cup in all. Season with a pinch of celery salt. Pepper and a few drops of lemon juice. Stir constantly until it boils. Then pour in one pint drained oysters. Bring to a simmer and pour into the shells, sprinkle with cracker dust and set in over for three minutes. Serve hot.

STEAMED PUDDING
3 cups flour,
1 cup milk, chopped,
1 cup raisins,
1 cup molasses,
1 cup sweet milk,
1 teaspoon baking soda,
1 teaspoon cinnamon,
1 teaspoon nutmeg.

Put suet in bowl, add milk, then soda mixed in molasses, add flour and raisins, spice last. Steam three hours.

PEANUT COOKIES
CREAM one tablespoon butter with two tablespoons sugar. Add one well-beaten egg and two tablespoons of milk. Sift together thoroughly half a cup of flour, half a level teaspoon baking powder and half teaspoon salt. Add this to the mixture and then add half a cup finely chopped peanuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls on an ungreased tin, leaving a space of about one-half inch between the cookies. Put half a peanut in center of each and bake in a slow oven.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

CLIPPINGS By Holworthy Hall

A Short Story in Five Daily Installments.
(Copyright, 1921.)

FIFTH INSTALLMENT.

"I love you," said Stephen thickly. "I love you and love you and love you—better than anybody in the whole damned world—all but . . . all but Amy."

And then he collapsed.

"Mr. Alton B. Mason was yesterday appointed receiver for S. W. Mead & Co., manufacturers of gasoline engines, upon the petition of creditors whose claims aggregated $275,000. The total assets of the company are said to be $360,000, of which $500,000 is in land, buildings and equipment, and the liabilities are $380,000."

"Stephen W. Mead, president of S. W. Mead & Co., is confined to his home, 962 Vine street, where he is suffering from nervous prostration brought about by business difficulties. A receiver for the company was appointed yesterday."

As she waited in the drawing room of the great stone house, Helen was cumulatively impressed by the variation between these immediate surroundings, and those which Stephen had visualized for his future. She knew, from what Stephen had told her, and from what she had read in the newspapers, that for at least a little time, luxury would be foreign to him. Mechanically she rehearsed for the hundredth time the speech she had come to make to Stephen's wife; and she even added to it a sentence or two suggested by the present atmosphere.

Amy came in quietly, and left her social greetings on the threshold. She brought evidence of a profound shock; she betrayed it in every gesture and in every inflection; but Helen, in her capacity of arbiter, gave Mrs. Mead no latitude of emotion. She couldn't enjoin herself from speculating what portion of the shock had had to do with Stephen's personal condition, and what part of it was bound up in her lesser catastrophe, which was reasonable for that. It was a bitter and a cynical conjecture, and she was almost, but not quite, ashamed of it. Amy had deserved it and more.

"Miss Raymond," Helen's presence was without welcome.

Helen rose to meet her. "I came for two reasons, Mrs. Mead. One of them was to ask about Stephen."

His response, like her attitude, was formal. "He's doing very nicely, thank you. The doctor says he's doing as well as could be expected."

"I'm glad to hear that."

"So good of you to ask."

"The other reason was even more important."

"Really?"

Helen wasn't afraid of her, or of herself. She was merely afraid that she wouldn't succeed in making her message clear enough.

"I came over to offer to be the best friend you ever had. Mrs. Mead, I want to be—oh, ever and ever so much."

Amy was unreticent. "Thank you," she said, at length. "Thank you."

with the idea of bringing me any news. If you have, you're too late. I know he's in love with you."

Helen's heart began to pound dangerously. "No, he isn't."

Amy regarded her steadily. "That fact, I know, is not true. I've been a substitute, Mrs. Mead. I've been a substitute for what you bunched him out of. Yes, bunched."

Amy was sobbing broken-heartedly. "He kissed you. He kissed you. I know he did."

"Yes, he did. That should have been your cue. I wasn't for me. He had to talk to somebody. He came to me—"

Amy drew in her breath sharply. "And he paid me the compliment of confiding in me when you should have been first, and I gave him the sympathy you should have given him. I'm glad I did."

I'm glad there was some one to make up for what you bunched him out of. Yes, bunched."

A Friend

By Sophie Irene Loeb.

A FRIEND is he who stands up for you in public and gives you the truth in private; who is interested in your affairs, but not inquisitive of them; who fights for you when you need it and are strong.

But soothes and sympathizes when you are weak; who refuses to get too close to you for fear of the intimacy that breeds contempt.

Who does not question you because you have not answered his letter, and always waits until the morning to quarrel with you.

A friend is he who gives you the benefit of the doubt when doubting would make you lose, and withholds judgment always until he has heard your side; who respects your silence when you do not wish to speak, and is a good listener to what you have to say.

Who will seek your company, but not intrude upon you; nor overstep your hospitality; who praises you, but never flatters; who cautions you, but never threatens.

Who gives you the first lift when you are down; who returns your money at the time he agreed; who gives you the word that will aid you.

And who is with you, right or wrong. Whether you are right or wrong.

velvet blackness shot through with the color of flames. That essence of Stephen's self hovered momentarily over the husk of Stephen's body, pitying it, and wondering what use to make of freedom. Then freedom proved not to be wholly free; for his winging consciousness was bound to the body by a scarlet thread of pain.

The thread broke, and the breaking was accompanied by the murmur of all the waves in the sea. The consciousness of Stephen flew away into the sunshine.

Long afterward it flew down again and descended through the soft blackness and found its refuge in the body. Slowly he was aware that he lived, and that the torture of nerve-terminals was gone. He said no word; he didn't open his eyes; he merely moved his hand.

Small, cool fingers enfolding it and Stephen smiled. He knew that here it was to play his bridge for charity. You know what I say about charity, don't you? I do care for him. Not the way you imagine, but because I'm a woman and he's a man who needs protection of some kind. I think I must care for him infinitely more than you do. If I didn't, I wouldn't be here, would I? And you don't deserve him. I said I came to offer to be your best friend. That, I think, is a journey of at least a year."

"Stephen W. Mead, who has begun to convalesce from his recent illness, has been elected second vice president and assistant general manager of the Republic Engineering Corporation, a new $3,000,000 concern formed by the consolidation of several local companies, including S. "Without doubt the Charity Ball will be as usual the most significant social event of the season. A new chairman of the Executive Committee will shortly be chosen to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mrs. Stephen W. Mead, who, to the great regret of her many friends, has canceled all her social engagements for the season."

If every young housewife will provide herself with a large book for her desk and ask visitors and friends or the passing guest to write their names down in her "guest book" it will make very interesting reading in the years to come.

"Sh-h-h! Don't talk, baby! You always sleep all the morning, and I'm used to being up all night. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spratt Mead. Isn't it most convenient?"

"Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond and their daughter, Miss Helen Raymond of Vermont avenue, have left for an extended tour to Japan, China and the Philippines. They contemplate a journey of at least a year."

Overindulgence in Wrong Foods Abets Jealousy, Hate and Other Unpleasant Emotions as Well as Overweight.
By DORIS DOSCHER

AN unusually appealing letter has come to me from a young girl of 16, who writes to me for advice on two different problems, not knowing that they are so closely related in solving one she will find the solution of the other. Since her problems are the problems of every girl who stands between girlhood and womanhood, I feel as if all of my readers will get some help from a discussion of her difficulties.

She has just started on her business career and, in common with all youths, she has a longing for the good things of life. She writes also that she has heard your side; who respects your silence when you do not wish to speak, and is a good listener to what you have to say.

Who will seek your company, but not intrude upon you; nor overstep your hospitality; who praises you, but never flatters; who cautions you, but never threatens.

Who gives you the first lift when you are down; who returns your money at the time he agreed; who gives you the word that will aid you.

And who is with you, right or wrong. Whether you are right or wrong.

velvet blackness shot through with the color of flames. That essence of Stephen's self hovered momentarily over the husk of Stephen's body, pitying it, and wondering what use to make of freedom. Then freedom proved not to be wholly free; for his winging consciousness was bound to the body by a scarlet thread of pain.

The thread broke, and the breaking was accompanied by the murmur of all the waves in the sea. The consciousness of Stephen flew away into the sunshine.

Long afterward it flew down again and descended through the soft blackness and found its refuge in the body. Slowly he was aware that he lived, and that the torture of nerve-terminals was gone. He said no word; he didn't open his eyes; he merely moved his hand.

Small, cool fingers enfolding it and Stephen smiled. He knew that here it was to play his bridge for charity. You know what I say about charity, don't you? I do care for him. Not the way you imagine, but because I'm a woman and he's a man who needs protection of some kind. I think I must care for him infinitely more than you do. If I didn't, I wouldn't be here, would I? And you don't deserve him. I said I came to offer to be your best friend. That, I think, is a journey of at least a year."

The very fact that she gets out of bed correctly, goes through her usual dress before going to business in the morning, is bound to strengthen her will power as well as to improve her figure. Putting a stated limit to the amount of food she may consume in the course of the day will strengthen her powers of resistance and the proper diet and the exercising of her body correctly will tone up her system, so that she will enjoy every moment she has to spend in sports. Little by little she will conquer that ugliest of all traits in woman—jealousy.

It is only as we study more and more the relation of food to our general well-being that we come to realize that even our personality can be changed by the kind and amount of food we eat. It may seem like stretching a point to advise persons who are not used to business in their diet, but science gives proof that by bridling your appetite and exercising your muscles, you strengthen your will and get control of your emotions.

Jealousy, anger and hate mar the beauty of any face. Gluttony, slothfulness and untidiness spoil the appearance of any figure.

They formed a circle around Mr. Blacksnake and screamed everything they could think of at him. They darted at him as if to peck at his eyes with their bills, but none dared get near enough for that. Mr. Blacksnake glared at them with unwinking eyes. You know he has the eyes of a hawk. His forked tongue darted out and in, and as he held his head drawn a little back, turning it from side to side as one bird or another darted down at him. He was not afraid, not the least bit. Not all the birds in the Old Orchard could frighten him. There was nothing to fear from any of them. But he was annoyed, very much annoyed. He didn't like so much attention. It made him angry, angry that once or twice he had savagely.

At the same time Mr. Blacksnake was not letting his temper interfere with a chance to get a good meal. He was very fond of birds and he had had no breakfast that morning. So as his head swung from side to side he was watching for one of his tormentors to make the mistake of being too daring and come within striking distance.

Once he struck at Bully the English Sparrow and all but got him. It was the narrowest kind of a narrow escape for Bully. And how the other birds did shriek then! Never had there been such a racket in the garden of Farmer Brown's Boy. You see, Mr. Blacksnake is hated by every one of the feathered folk, for in the spring he robs

When Ivan the Terrible ruled o'er the Russ,
Though his fury was easy enough to provoke,
He never was known to kick up any fuss
If the ladies of the court asked permission to smoke.
He may have believed the habit was bad;
He may have thought smoking would make 'em all wrecked,
But his conduct was ruled by the knowledge he had
That law never governs the feminine sex.

When Bonaparte looked from his porch in Versailles
And sniffed the tobacco that scented the air,
He called in a footman and asked of him why
The grooms and the hostlers were smoking out there.
"It's women, Your Highness," the footman replied,
"They puff cigarettes afterwards as they chat."
"So women are smoking!" the Emperor sighed,
"Well, even a Bonaparte cannot stop that."

In good Queen Victoria's glorious reign
She often with Ministers sadly would plead
For laws which would make the court ladies refrain
From staining their fingers and souls with the weed.
The Ministers told her they'd freely admit Tobacco addiction was dreadfully low,
But always they added, "We can't make 'em quit,
It wouldn't be legal—they're women, y' know."

We venerate Congress with all of our heart,
We bow to their edicts with reverent awe,
However, we warn 'em they'd better not start
To regulate feminine habits by law.
For if the proposed legislation is passed,
It will not work out as reformers have planned,
The welkin with smoke clouds will be overcast,
And women will puff 'em all over the land.

AWFUL THOUGHTFUL. Can it be possible that Mr. Harding went to Maine because it has been dry for so long it knows how to entertain a thirsty man?
THE WRONG KIND. A woman is suing for divorce because her husband plays golf all the time. Evidently souls are not bound together by golf links.
